

Public policy decisions may have significant implications for OMERS Administration Corporation's ("OAC") operations and commercial interests. OAC participates in the political process where appropriate. Our contributions are made in accordance with documented policies and procedures, and are aligned with OAC's commercial interests.

Contributions are planned, budgeted, and approved by OAC management and are subject to OAC Board monitoring and oversight. Contributions are also reported in the applicable jurisdiction where the contribution is made, as required.

The Donations Policy requires the OAC to report on the political contributions activities of the OAC enterprise by publishing a report on its website of expenditures relating to contributions conducted in the previous calendar year.
